Another Daring Robbery.

Bold and daring robbery seem to be fashionable nowadays, and since the startling item of the stoppage of the Pioneer stages by the brigands on Geiger, scarce a day passes that we do not have some sort of a robbery of which to record. But about as bold as any yet was the robbery of the American Flat toll-house, night before last. It was seven o'clock in the evening. Mr. Townsend, the toll-house keeper, had just stepped into a room adjoining his office with his day-book, and was sitting near his wife, who was ill, when he heard a slight pattering of steps on the sidewalk and entering the toll-house door, which stood open. He rose and stepped forward, but was met in the doorway by a very tall man with a mask face masked, who held a pistol toward him demanding his money. Four others also masked, stood near the outside door and upon the sidewalk, armed with shotguns or rifles. The tall robber quietly, but in a firm tone, remarked to Mr. Townsend: "We don't want to hurt you, sir, but you must deliver up your money."

Townsend replied that the money he had in his possession was not his, but that it belonged to the toll road company. "Good," said one of the robbers, "that's all the better, for the company can afford to lose it better than you can." They compelled Townsend to open the safe, which he did very reluctantly, of course, they hurrying him up with threats of instant death in case of refusal, while one of the rascals attended to Mrs. Townsend to keep her quiet. Townsend unlocked the combination lock, and when the safe was opened the robbers took from it the sum of $555, which was all the cash there was in it. They did not attempt any further robbery, but quickly at once took their leave with their booty, going toward American Flat. The whole community seems to be in the mercy of these infernal bold scoundrels, and how they are to be prevented from coming in and sacking the city it is difficult to see. We hope they won't try it.—Virginia Enterprise, 16th.

RATHER COOL.—Here is a story of the days when traveling on canal boats was considered the most comfortable mode of getting along on a journey out West: "Hallo, there, captain," said a Green Mountain Yankee to the captain of a packet on the Erie Canal, "what do you charge for passage?" "Three cents per mile and board," said the captain. "Wal, I guess I'll take passage, capting, seeing as how I am a kinder gin cout walking so tarnation, far." Accordingly he got on board just as the steward was ringing the bell for dinner. Jonathan sat down and began to demolish the "fixins," to the utter consternation of the captain, until he cleared the table of all that was eatable, when he went on deck, picking his teeth very comfortably. "How far is it, capting from here to where I came aboard?" "Nearly one and a half miles," said the captain. "Let's see," said Jonathan, "that would be just four and a half cents; but never mind, capting, I won't be small; here's five cents, pays my fare up to here; I guess I'll go ashore now; I'm kinder rested out." The captain vamosed for the cabin, and Jonathan went ashore.

HOW MEN ARE FLOGGED AND BRANDED IN ENGLAND.—The number of men flogged in the army and militia of Great Britian and Ireland in 1863 was 518; the number of lashes inflicted. 23,668. The number of prisoners flogged in 1864 was 528, and of lashes inflicted, 25,638. The number of persons flogged in 1865 was 441, and of lashes inflicted, 21,561. The number of men marked with the letter D in 1863 was 1,189; with the letter D in 1864 there were marked with the letter D, 1,338; marked with D in 1865 cannot be ascertained. The number of men marked in 1865 with the letter D was 1,502; with the letters D, 90.

AN Eastern exchange says that Lieutenant Harding, the bolt, bar officer who committed perjury and was so to marry the notorious Belle Boyd, who afterwards treated him with the contempt his conduct deserved, was one of the victims of the Evening Star disaster.

What Utah Needs.

...ilroads are the arteries through which ...the life-blood of prosperous and prosper... communities. The wonderful progress ...e by our country during the past thirty ...s, in all the elements of wealth and pros...y, may fairly be attributed to the build... of railways throughout the land. By bring... the interior into rapid and easy communi... with the great lakes of the northwest ...the ocean, they have reduced the wilder... to fertile farms, and spread happy homes ...contented people all over the land. The ...ted and wonderful advancement of the ...es lying northwest of the Ohio river may ...estionably be traced to the energy, capi... and enterprise, which projected and com... ...ed a net-work of railroads connecting the ...rwise commercially inaccessible interior ...the marts of the Atlantic. So, too, has ...same cause built up as if by magic the ...t cities of the west. Chicago, Cincinnati, ...eland, Indianapolis, and other cities whose ...ease in population and wealth has been so ...derful, owe much, if not everything, to ...fact that they are the railway centres of ...agricultural and mining regions.

...herever railways centre, there will be the ...t cities, and all along their lines, from ...t to point, large towns arise and prosper. ...o can say if it had not been for the construc... ...of these life-giving arteries of commerce, ...long the interior of the now great States ...Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, and ..., would have remained comparatively the ...sely wooded wilderness or barren prairies ...were thirty years ago, or what length of ...it would have taken to so densely and ...perously people them as now? Much as ...re has done for them, in the matter of ...-communication by means of the great ...s and the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, the ...rior would no doubt still have remained ..."back woods," because the lands for want ...market would not have been profitably ...ivated.

...tuated as Great Salt Lake City is, it only ...ires the exercise of a little foresight and ...exhibition of a little enterprise to make ...the commercial emporium of the interior ...he continent. Her position assures her ...re greatness and wealth, and it remains ...her capitalists and enterprising citizens ...ay whether this shall be to-day, to-morrow, ...decade hence. With a population of near ...hundred thousand souls, we have not in ...Utah a single mile of railroad, either built ...rojected. For three hundred miles south... ...d, and one hundred and fifty to the north, ...a teeming agricultural population, and a ...dred flourishing towns, we have no means ...ommunication, save the wagon road. The ...duce along the route which wants a market, ...only find it by the slow and expensive ...ans of the ox, mule and horse teams of the ...er. With the Pacific Railroad rapidly ...roaching our eastern and western borders, ...n to connect us with the Atlantic and Paci... Oceans, we have no branch roads projected ...nliven and make prosperous the rich and ...nalous regions north and south.

...n a former issue we suggested the building, ...t least the commencement of preparations ...building, a road from this city to Pahrana... ...and the head of navigation on the Colo... ...o. Such a road would do more to advance ...interests of Utah, and especially of Great ...Lake City, than any other enterprise of ...ch we can conceive. Already we see the ...fornia papers are advocating the building ...railroad from San Francisco via Los An... ...s and Walker's Pass to Pahranagat and ...ville, on the Colorado. A road from this ...to meet or intersect the one proposed, ...ld not only be a remunerative undertaking ...s projectors, but would greatly tend to ...prosperity of all southern Utah, and be of ...ndous advantage to this city. We have ...ty of capital within the Territory to com... ...such a work within ourselves. But if it ...not done by Utah, it will surely and at no ...ant day be accomplished by capital and ...erprise from abroad. Let us have rail... ...ds, telegraphs, commerce, education, and ...r-communication, and this city and Terri... ...will be behind none of their sisters to the ...or the west. The days of isolation and ...glish contentment are past, and will no ...re return.

FRATERNAL EMEUTE.—The San Francisco ...g of the 10th, after a long article on what ...alls "Unparelleled Journalistic Torpitude," ...cludes as follows:

Total Republican majority 54,957, or eleven hundred and fifty less than Logan's majority reported yesterday. Frauds are alleged in the Ninth District, which being corrected, it is claimed Lippincott, Republican, would have 44 majority over Ross, whose seat will therefore be contested.

Wisconsin gives the following official majorities in the Congressional Districts:

First District, Paine, 4,253; Second, Benj. F. Hopkins, 5,296; Third, Cobb, 6,403; Fourth, Eldridge, Democrat, 2,562; Fifth, Sawyer, 5,066; Sixth, C. C. Washburn, 6,500. Total nett Republican majority, 25,000.

Kansas, all except three counties, gives 18,771 Republican majority. The total vote will reach 27,000.

Next Monday the route of the Overland California Mail will be changed from St. Louis to Chicago, and will go via the Northwestern railroad to Woodbine, Iowa; thence by stage 35 miles to Council Bluffs and Omaha; thence by the Union Pacific Railroad to its present terminus, 265 miles. The gap of 35 miles between Woodbine and Council Bluffs will be filled by the 1st of January, and the running time from New York to the North Fork of Platte River—all rail—will be six days. The Union Pacific Railroad Company have completed the bridge across the North Fork of the Platte and make their present terminus on the west side of the North Fork, where their workmen are encamped waiting the resumption of operations next spring. No more will be done on the railroad until next March, but Durant is confident he will complete 300 miles in the first one hundred working days. Under the new arrangement the mails will leave Chicago at 7 P. M., containing the New York morning mail of the day previous, and connecting with the Overland coaches.

Two Chicago men, one of them a late respectable merchant, have been arrested for a villainous conspiracy to burn the steamer Morning Star on Lake Erie, their object being to get the paltry insurance of $10,000 on bogus freight. They hired a tool who got drunk and bungled the job.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

New York, November 22.

Flour dull and heavy, 15 a 25 lower, trade brands closing very heavy; wheat dull and heavy nominally 3 a 5 lower.

Money active and firmer; gold irregular and unsettled and lower.

Government stocks heavy and half per cent lower.

The Post says the panic in Wall street has entered on a new phase this morning, on the rumor that Government was selling both coin and 5-20's. These rumors and other depressing causes produced a general loss of confidence, and resulted in a heavy and most sudden fall, which government securities have received for a considerable time.

Fancy stocks cannot be sold at any price, and some of the clique combinations have apparently been broken up and their stocks sold.

Rumors of new failures are current, but none of importance are authenticated.

Railroad shares are weak and despondent, which has taken the place of the recent buoyant confidence. Prices are fluctuating, so that it is almost impossible to obtain trustworthy quotations or follow with accuracy the incessant changes.

The Harmony ... and ... Company have ... into liquidation with assets amounting to $300,000, sufficient to meet all claims.

The Commercial says the ... ... wear a very unsettled ... ... money is decidedly stringent ... almost at a dead stand ... pleasure for commercial loans. The ... ...

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

THE VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (in which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) make it the most unexceptionable medium for advertising in these four young Territories.

DOWN WITHOUT A BIDDER.—That rattling, rollicking, eloquent and musical Horse Auctioneer that rushes through our streets daily, with his every tongue going faster than that of the bell which is everlastingly dinging in your ears, was brought to a temporary cessation of his labors on Wednesday last, by an accident that resulted not fatally, but ludicrously. While rushing through Second South Temple street, his voice raised to a height equal to the strain of eloquence in which he was indulging, in order to attract the attention of the passers-by, having reached as far as "Distance lends enchantment"—when his faithful animal weakened, staggered and fell, landing the auctioneer in a mud-puddle of some depth. His voice ceased; the tongue of his bell was silent, but only for an instant, when the anxious and breathless silence of the crowd of spectators was broken by peals of laughter as they witnessed him emerge from his watery bed, with a coat of saturated black soil, which gave him the appearance of a Blackamoor. Soon both horses were again in motion, and man, horse and bell resumed their sway.

BOASTED ENTERPRISE.—We do not often indulge in boasting, but as some one else does think of "God-like achievements," far surpassing any other paper this side of the Missouri River, and claim an unusual degree of praise for giving telegraphic news of events in Europe to its readers within one day after their occurrence, and at the immense distance of "700 miles," we claim that information through our columns has been as prompt as by any other competitor devoted to such purpose. Now, if our readers will examine our issue of yesterday and numerous ones for some time previous, they will find news, conveyed on the same day and from a much greater distance than "700 miles," which others have not published, and yet we don't think it a "God-like achievement," but merely the result of legitimate competition.

THE SAN FRANCISCO TIMES.—Yesterday we received by mail for the first time, a copy of this paper; it is No. 10. It certainly presents a very creditable appearance, and deserves success. Its merits have so thoroughly been discussed by those who were fortunate enough to receive its early numbers, as to render further comment from us unnecessary. Like some sheets that have preceded it, we find it is at loggerheads with the Associated Press in the telegraph line.

ROOMS TO RENT.—Two rooms on the south side of the square west of Temple Block, near the west end of the square, South Temple street. Apply on the premises.

FOR SALE.—We have for wholesale a large lot of staple Dry Goods and Groceries, in our warehouse, at the rear of the Miners' National Bank. WM. KISKADDEN & Co.

The Idaho Times of the 13th has the following items:

We learn by passengers who arrived here last evening that the Indians had attacked one of H. Beachey's Star City stages on Thursday last, killing a man by the name of Hitchcock. The remainder escaped to a station upon horses cut loose from the stage. Upon their return to the scene of the attack they found Hitchcock scalped and his heart cut out. He was a teamster, and had about $9,000 with him, of which he was robbed. We look again, who is responsible?

The Rev. Mr. Roberts delivered another very interesting lecture on Mormonism at the Court House on Sunday evening last to a good audience. He produces arguments in favor of reconstruction in that locality that cannot be misunderstood.

Mr. G W. Kennedy, a former resident of Salt Lake City, lately returned from the new mines near Lemhi. He showed us a brick weighing 11 ounces, 900 fine, and valued at $348.65, or $31 per ounce. About 450 miners will winter there. The provisions for the camp are contained at East Bannock, about 80 miles distant.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: A report is current that a large number of persons have been massacred somewhere in the Wind river country; among them Hank Leabman, a packer well known at Walla Walla.

In Walla Walla a movement is on foot which looks as though we are to have a woolen mill without fail. Three prominent gentlemen have already taken $45,000 in stock, and other parties have signified their attention to take stock in a amount that makes the whole subscription foot up to $60,000. It is desired to have stock taken to the amount of $75,000, when operations will be at once commenced. Also, ground has been broken and a large gang of workmen are engaged in getting out the timbers preparatory to erecting a reservoir for the use of the city water works.

The Montana Democrat says His Excellency Governor Green Clay Smith, by the unanimous permission of the Council, will have the use of the Council Room the 16th inst., from 9 to 10 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of receiving his fellow-citizens of Virginia in the good, kind, old familiar style of Kentucky.

The Post has the following:

Colonel Bright, the new mail agent for Montana, left Virginia City on the 14th inst. for the north, to establish a mail route from Walla Walla to Missoula Mills. John Allman, an old citizen of Montana, has obtained the contract to carry the mail, and will run a line of coaches between those two points.
